BROWNS SOLD TO BILL VEECK, SAYS N. Y. POST

NEW YORK, May 31 (UP) —The New York Post, in a dispatch by Sports Columnist Jimmy Cannon from Chicago, reports today that the St. Louis Browns have been sold to a syndicate headed by Bill Veeck.

The club will remain in St. Louis, according to Cannon. The Post says it has been informed that negotiations for the sale of the Browns to Veeck were completed last week. The deal is said to include the San Antonio club in the Texas League, a Browns farm.
